Aston Martin

Newport Pagnell

Salmon's Coachworks

The Aston Martin factory can be found on Tickford Street, Newport Pagnell. For over 50 years the Aston Martin factory hand built the cars for the rich and famous, including a Vanquish which appeared in the James Bond film Die Another Day. The factory also had visits from celebrities such as the Queen and Prince Charles.

At one point Aston Martin cars were the fastest cars in the world. Today the factory is used to service and repair Aston Martin cars. Before any of this happened the factory was run by Salmon and Sons who built carriages and cars back as far as 1820.

The final Aston Martin to be manufactured at the Newport Pagnell factory was the Vanquish Ultimate.

Aston Martin June 2010

The last day of manufacturing was 19th July 2007 the end of an era of building Aston Martin cars in Newport Pagnell. The building will always remain an important place in Newport Pagnell's history.
